DESCRIPTION

This exceptional 9.93-acre parcel in the tranquil East End of Grand Cayman offers a rare opportunity to own a substantial landholding in one of the island’s most peaceful and unspoiled regions. Positioned directly across the road from the ocean, the property enjoys close proximity to the shoreline and benefits from consistent cooling sea breezes. Elevated approximately 20 feet above sea level, the land features natural elevation that enhances drainage and provides attractive topography, creating an ideal setting for a private estate, agricultural pursuits, or future development opportunities . Adding to the property's unique appeal is a charming barn-style structure of approximately 800–1,000 square feet. This well-built wooden building features a full kitchen, open living area, and a cozy loft space, offering immediate functionality and a comfortable retreat within the surrounding forest. A truly remarkable feature is the impressive 50,000-gallon swimming pool carved directly into the natural rock, creating a one-of-a-kind amenity that blends seamlessly with the surrounding landscape and natural environment. The acreage is further enhanced by an extensive network of footpaths winding throughout the property, inviting exploration and allowing owners to fully appreciate the property's natural beauty, mature vegeta.....complete details on website.
