Property Description

Waters Edge sits on one of the widest, most pristine parts of world-famous Seven Mile Beach. Conveniently located near some of the island's best restaurants and shopping it is also only a short walk to Camana Bay. Unit #27, located on the fifth floor, boasts breathtaking ocean views and spectacular sunsets right outside your door. The residence has two balconies; one extensively sized leading from the family room and a private balcony off the gorgeous master suite. Guest suites have large bathrooms, one with a soaker tub, and both enjoy views of the North Sound. This stunning residence also features unique additions that aren't available in most other units in the complex. The current owners have introduced well-thought-out upgrades that set the home apart from the rest including a large, 2-car, secure garage situated in the underground parking area with built-in, lockable storage and electricity (perfect for electric car owners). An office has been added, designed so that it can easily be converted into a fourth bedroom with a pocket door leading to the guest bathroom. Other additions include a home automation electronics closet, pantry, plenty of extra storage, a stunning wood built-in shelving and entertainment unit in the master bedroom, two safes, 'smart toilet' and many more features.
